

CHARLESTON RESTAURANTS

Rick Segal, one of our Charleston local hosts for the 2023 ASNR Annual Meeting, has provided a list of suggested restaurants for meals that are not provided as part of the conference.

As most of these restaurants are very popular, reservations are recommended. Make them early!

Map #	Name	Address	Phone	Google Description	Rick Segal's Comments
1	167 Raw	193 King Street	(843) 579-4997	Cozy, contemporary seafood eatery with a patio, serving oysters, lobster rolls, fish tacos & more.	Long wait, but worth it
2	39 Rue de Jean	39 John Street	(843) 722-8881	Busy, brick-walled bistro serving French classics & sushi with a twist, plus a lively bar.
3	Basic Kitchen	82 Wentworth Street	(843) 789-4568	Serene, light-filled space for dishes featuring local produce & whole grains, plus Sunday brunch.	Small, but great flavorful food
4	Bin 152	152 King Street	(843) 577-7359	Many wines by the glass, plus cheese & charcuterie, in an art-adorned, rustic-cool space.
5	Bistronomy By Nico	64 Spring Street	(843) 410-6221	Bistronomy blends a cozy, low-lit atmosphere with a vast selection of French wines and a modern, innovative menu that pays homage to classic French dishes.
6	Chubby Fish	252 Coming Street	(854) 222-3949	Small, warm neighborhood eatery offering a seafood menu alongside a creative wine list & desserts.	Seafood
7	Cru	18 Pinckney Street	(843) 534-2434	Refined takes on American comfort food are served in this charming, historic house with a porch.	Always good
8	FIG	232 Meeting Street	(843) 805-5900	Elevated takes on Southern classics with seasonal ingredients served in an upscale-bistro setting.
9	Fleet Landing	186 Concord Street	(843) 722-8100	Southern seafood staples served in sleek, light-filled quarters, with a patio overlooking the water.	Seafood; on the water
10	Frannie and the Fox	181 Church Street	(866) 246-7407	Relaxed Italian restaurant offering wood-fired pizzas & happy hours, plus homey decor & a courtyard.	Italian
11	Fuel	211 Rutledge Avenue	(843) 737-5959	Refined pub eats with Caribbean twists in a repurposed 1950s-era gas station with a big patio.	Relatively cheap with good beer
12	Goulette Rotisserie & Grill	210 Rutledge Avenue	(843) 805-6699	Chicken, lamb chops, soups & salads in a bistro that reflects its laid-back French chef/owner.	French
13	Hall's Chop House	434 King Street	(843) 727-0090	Sizable cuts of beef & seafood served in elegant surrounds, also known for its Sunday gospel brunch.	Expensive, but terrific food including steak and seafood
14	High Cotton	199 E Bay Street	(843) 724-3815	Spacious, refined eatery featuring Lowcountry fare cooked using ingredients from nearby farms.
15	Husk	76 Queen Street	(843) 577-2500	An ever-changing menu of locally sourced Southern dishes served in a restored Victorian-era home.
16	Laurel	161 Rutledge Avenue	(843) 974-5159	Casual venue serving Spanish & Portuguese cuisine such as pintxos, tapas & charcoal-grilled fare.
17	Leon's	698 King Street	(843) 531-6500	Relaxed joint serving oysters, Southern-style seafood & fried chicken in a cool space with a patio.	Oysters and fried chicken; could wait a while
18	Magnolias	185 E Bay Street	(843) 577-7771	A refined take on traditional Southern cooking, served in a warm, sophisticated environment.
19	Muse Restaurant & Wine Bar	82 Society Street	(843) 577-1102	An extensive number of wines are available to pair with Mediterranean dishes such as homemade pasta.
20	Peninsula Grill	112 N Market Street	(843) 723-0700	Renowned hotel eatery serving elevated Southern fare in a roomy, posh space.
21	Poogan's Porch	72 Queen Street	(843) 577-2337	Traditional Southern cooking served in a Victorian townhouse with porches & a massive wine cellar.
22	Rappahannock Oyster Bar	701 E Bay Street #110	(843) 576-4693	Expansive, lively destination for oysters & hearty entrees, with a copper bar for cocktails & wine.
23	Slightly North of Broad (SNOB)	192 E Bay Street	(843) 723-3424	Modern Southern & Lowcountry cuisine served in an airy, 18th-century warehouse.
24	Stella's	114 St Philip Street	(843) 400-0026	Classy throwback diner for Greek dishes & meze to share, plus Mediterranean Sunday brunch.	Greek
25	The Establishment	28 Broad Street	(843) 789-4028	Stylish seafood restaurant offering classic Southern dishes alongside beer, wine & bourbon drinks.	Get the crab gnocchi
26	The Grocery	4 Cannon Street	(843) 302-8825	Welcoming eatery with an innovative, seasonal menu, plus signature cocktails, wine & craft beers.	Always good
27	The Ordinary	544 King Street	(843) 414-7060	This 1920s bank now houses an upscale seafood restaurant with high ceilings, large windows & a bar.	Expensive, but awesome seafood
28	Vern's	41 Bogard Street A	(843) 509-4104	Vern's is a buzzy neighborhood restaurant serving eclectic American fare. Seasonal mixture of shareable plates, fresh pasta, and elevated classics.
29	Xiao Bao Biscuit	224 Rutledge Avenue	(843) 994-2375	Creative, multicultural Asian cooking & specialty cocktails in a trendy converted gas station.	Asian Fusion; can be spicy, but awesome

