

Click anywhere on the PDF for additional information

Announcement Title: Open Rank Professor

Description: Support the Department of Rehabilitation Sciences professional and post-professional programs through research, teaching, and service. The breadth and depth of activities will be based on incoming rank. Research/Scholarship a) Procure grants to support and sustain an ongoing research agenda b) Maintain a productive presentation and publication record. c) Participate in research collaborations across the campus to contribute to the multi-disciplinary research goals for the campus. d) Mentor students and/or faculty in research across the DPT, MOT, DSc and or PhD programs Teaching: a) Teach and participate in the integrated professional level PT and OT curriculum, and the post-professional programs b) Advise and mentor students c) Support and promote a collaborative and positive learning environment for students d) Work closely with Program Directors to ensure courses aligned with curriculum design and measure student outcomes. e) Use innovative and evidence-based teaching strategies Service: a) Participate in University, College, Department, and/or Program service b) Contribute to the development of innovative and/or interprofessional outreach programs c) Participate in respective professional associations

Additional Information: Title and Rank: Tenure-track or tenure eligible, Open Rank Professor Position is a 12-month appointment. Required Qualifications: • Physical Therapist with an earned post-professional doctoral degree and evidence of research training (PhD, EdD, DSc, DrPH) • Candidate must be licensed in Oklahoma; if not licensed, must meet eligibility requirements for Oklahoma licensure and pursue process upon hiring. • Research experience in areas of musculoskeletal or neuromuscular rehabilitation. • Evidence of research funding. Preferred Qualifications based on Incoming Rank: • Published research that involves or could translate to methodologies using motion capture technology and related data analyses. • Teaching and advising experience in an academic setting • Three years of professional practice experience • Evidence of contemporary knowledge of orthopedic and/or neurologic PT practice • Evidence of research/scholarly contributions to the profession • Record of involvement with professional associations • Demonstrates effective oral and written communication skills and the capacity for self-evaluation that supports professional development • Experience in working with underrepresented populations • Evidence of collaboration in research, teaching, and service Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

Website: College of Allied Health University of Oklahoma

Contact: Thubi Kolobe

Email: hkolobe@ouhsc.edu

Phone: 405-271-2131
